PDC Case 6784

Findings of Fact,
Conclusions of Law, and Order Imposing Fine

A brief enforcement hearing (brief adjudicative proceeding) was held August 5, 2016, in Room 206, Evergreen Plaza Building, 711 Capitol Way, Olympia, Washington to consider whether the Respondent violated: (1) RCW 42.17A.205 by failing to file a Candidate Registration (C-1 report); and (2) RCW 42.17A.700 by failing to file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report). The C-1 and F-1 reports were both due to be filed within two weeks of becoming a candidate in the 2016 election, or not later than June 3, 2016.

The hearing was held in accordance with Chapters 34.05 and 42.17A RCW and Chapter 390-37 WAC. A brief enforcement hearing notice was sent to John Dickinson on July 21, 2016. Commission Chair Anne Levinson was the Presiding Officer. The Commission staff was represented by Kurt Young, Compliance Officer. The Respondent appeared in person at the hearing, and presented testimony to the Presiding Officer.

Having considered the evidence, the Presiding Officer finds as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Respondent is a candidate for State Representative in the 37 Legislative District in 2016.
2. Previously, the Respondent was a candidate for State Representative in the 37 Legislative District in 2014.
3. As a candidate for office in 2016, the Respondent was required to file a C-1 report and an F-1 report no later than June 3, 2016.

4. The Respondent filed the missing C-1 or F-1 reports on August 5, 2016, prior to the brief enforcement hearing adjourning.
5. The Respondent has no prior violations.
6. The Respondent stated that he had previously been a candidate for State Representative in 2014, and that he attempted to file the forms, but had difficulties with signature part. He stated that in 2016, he would not be drawing a salary if he was elected, and that he is not accepting contributions to support his candidacy.
7. The Respondent stated that his 2016 campaign is conducted by "word of mouth" and he has participated in several candidate forums, and that all of his campaign materials are self-produced by him. He stated that politics is all about perception, and he has been working to end to the war on drugs for years.

Based on the above facts, as a matter of law, the Presiding Officer concludes as follows:

1. This matter was duly and properly convened and all jurisdictional, substantive and procedural requirements have been satisfied.

Respondent's Appeal Rights

REVIEW OF INITIAL ORDER - BY THE COMMISSION

The presiding officer will issue an initial order following a brief enforcement hearing. Any party may request the Commission review an initial order. Parties seeking the review must:

- Make the request orally or in writing, stating the reason for review (WAC 390-37-144).
- Deliver the request so it is received at the Commission office within TWENTY-ONE (21) BUSINESS DAYS after the postmark date of the initial order.

A Respondent does not need to pay a penalty until after the Commission rules on the request. If the Commission is unable to schedule a meeting to consider the request within twenty (20) business days, the initial order becomes a final order and the request will automatically be treated as a request for reconsideration of a final order (unless the party advises the Commission otherwise, such as by withdrawing the request). See more information on reconsideration below.

If the request for review was an oral request, it must now be confirmed in writing. The matter will be scheduled before the full Commission as soon as practicable. If the Commission does not receive a request for review within twenty-one (21) business days, the initial order will automatically become a final order. At that point, the Respondent is legally obligated to pay the penalty unless reconsideration has been sought or the matter has been timely appealed to Superior Court. RCW 42.17A.755; RCW 34.05.470; RCW 34.05.570.

RECONSIDERATION OF FINAL ORDER – BY THE COMMISSION

Any party may ask the Commission to reconsider a final order. Parties seeking reconsideration must:

- Make the request in writing;
- Include the specific grounds or reasons for the request; and
- Deliver the request to the PDC office so it is received within TWENTY-ONE (21) BUSINESS DAYS of the date that the Commission serves this order upon the party. WAC 390-37-150.

- Note: the date of service by the Commission on a party is considered the date of mailing by U.S. mail if the order is mailed, or the date received if the order is personally served. RCW 34.05.010(19). (The Commission orders are generally mailed via U.S. mail.)

Within twenty (20) business days after the petition for reconsideration is filed, the Commission may either act on the petition or notify the parties in writing of the date by which it will act. If neither of these events happens within twenty business days, the Commission is deemed to have denied the petition for reconsideration. WAC 390-37-150.

A Respondent is not required to ask the Commission to reconsider a final order before seeking judicial review by a superior court. RCW 34.05.470(5).

FURTHER APPEAL RIGHTS – SUPERIOR COURT

A final order issued by the Public Disclosure Commission is subject to judicial review under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), chapter 34.05 RCW. RCW 42.17A.755. The procedures are provided in the APA at RCW 34.05.510 - .574.

ENFORCEMENT OF FINAL ORDERS

If enforcement of a final order is required, the Commission may seek to enforce a final order in superior court under RCW 42.17A.755 - .760, and recover legal costs and attorney's fees if a penalty remains unpaid and no petition for judicial review has been filed. This action will be taken without further order by the Commission.
