HI,

I am not sure what kind of response you are asking for? Clearly I made two personal comments on someone's post. I am not sure the date nor time of these posts as they are not reflected in the attachments.

I can say this, I was not attempting to discredit anyone, I was expressing my personal opinion as a voter and depending on when they were made they were either made from my personal cell phone, iPad or computer.

I am not part of either candidates campaign, or campaign committee.

I want to fully answer any questions you may have but I honestly do not know what you are asking.

A concern I have though is that I am being singled out by Mr. Brown because of where I work and who I support. Mr. Brown is a supporter of Mr. Berry and has listed me only in the complaint, when another county employee made a comment on this same post.

Please feel free to reach out to me and I will try to answer your questions to the best of my ability and recollection.
