Erik Larson called me Friday Oct. 25th at 6:15 pm. He asked me if I received his E-mail. I said I had not, but I would look as I might have missed it. I asked him what it was about and he said it was a request to see my campaign finances. I said my records are here but my wife takes care of them and she left for Seattle about 4:30 and would not be back until Saturday afternoon. I would meet him after she returns. Erik said he was going out of town for a few days and would not be able to meet me until Thursday. I said that would be fine.

After my wife returned she pulled all the records so I would have them to make them available to anyone. She also looked through my phone and our computer to find Erik's E-mail. We did not find any E-mail from Erik requesting to see my records.

My records are available. My totals add up to $3,500 based on a $5000 maximum total for my campaign. My wife has taken them out of the file so I have them.

I don't understand why Erik filed a complaint after we agreed to meet on Thursday, but I will meet with him as we agreed to settle this.
