What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Amy Lam, candidate for 2021 Sammamish City Council Position 1, has failed to file timely C1 and F1 reports. She has officially filed for office via King County Elections and will be a candidate on the August 2021 primary ballot. This is a gross misstep of public trust to now almost a month later now have any public filing information available to the public via the PDC. Candidates for office should research and know how to run for office, especially knowing they will be in the public eye.
