To

The PDC,

I have been working with the public commissions officer for the last 3 weeks. Since it's my first time running for the public office, it wasn't an easy journey. Regarding the cost of the yard signs, t-shirts, and postcards I have spoken with the PDC and they have responded, telling me to submit the expenses by July 11th. I made a payment to Seattle Design and Print on June 23rd. The website and social media pages have been paid for by my friends and family. I am sorry if I have made a mistake on filling late, but the allegation was totally a political ploy. My volunteer team and myself are going door-to-door and distributing the postcards. Talking to many voters, who seem curious to change, and eager to support me and my campaign. As we all know everyone wants to get elected and try to make the other competitor look bad. But I will do my best and reach out to the officer from PDC and try to fix everything immediately. Again I apologize if I was unable to submit my expenses on time, however moving forward I will make sure to be prompt in my submissions according to the PDC.

Sincerely,

Sanjeev Yonzon
