Tabitha,

Looking at the attached screen shot it looks like possibly information was cut off on a different operating system. We removed the copyright 2021 stamp and all rights reserved along with centering the information. I logged on from a desktop and a Mac and it seems to be showing on every operating system that I have access to.

Please let me know if this is showing on your end and advise us on anything else we would need to do.

Best/ Shane Hoffmire
