Complaint Description
Glen Morgan reported via the portal (Thu, 2 Mar 2023 at 8:50 PM) To whom it may concern, It has recently come to my attention that the 509 Forward PAC appears to have violated Washington State’s campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A) in a variety of ways. The details are as follows: 1) Failure to properly identify as a sponsored committee (Violation of RCW 42.17A.005(47)(b)(i), WAC 390-16-011A) This Party PAC received more than 80% of its funding sourced from one primary sponsor source in 2022. Specifically, the 509 Forward PAC received $38,555 in 2022 from cash contributions and of this, 96.48% (or $37,200) was from one primary sponsor. That primary sponsor was the defunct “Lisa Brown for Congress” PAC. Specifically, the failed “Lisa Brown for Congress” PAC gave $12,200 on April 14,2022 (See PDC C3 # 110084323 attached) and another $25,000 on August 9, 2022 (See PDC C3 # 110106902 attached). The remaining 3.52% of contributions consisted of minor contributions from friends of Lisa Brown. So, to be fair, during the 2022 calendar year (at least since April 14, 2022), if there had been any interest in complying with the law, this sponsored PAC should have corrected their C1PC and renamed themselves the “509 Forward PAC Sponsored by Lisa Brown for Congress PAC” but, obviously there was no attempt by this professional, well-funded PAC to follow the law. The law is very clear, as WAC 390-16-011A clearly states: “A sponsored political committee must amend its C-1pc sixty days before an election in which it participates if the committee's name on its most recently filed C-1pc does not include at least one current sponsor.” This political committee failed to comply with the law and correct it’s C1PC documents to properly reflect that it was a wholly sponsored PAC with 96.48% of its funding coming from another PAC, and a Federal campaign PAC at that. This was a flagrant effort to conceal the truth when using those same funding to provide extensive voter communication. This failure to properly correct its name means that every single mailer this organization distributed had inaccurate sponsorship information indicated in the Paid for disclaimer as well. Let me explain why this matters to the people of Spokane, as well as the PDC in this case.

As you can see by reviewing the basic expenditures made by this PAC, there were not a large number of transactions in 2022, but the two that are relevant in this specific detail (just one of a variety of violations committed by this PAC) are the November 2, 2022 mailer of 12,500pcs for $4,375. This was sent within 7 days of the 2022 election. (See PDC C4 # 110129042 attached). The second mailer was mailed December 5, 2022 with 5,544 pieces for $4,275.10 (See PDC C4# 110132424 attached). I will note for the record, the larger mailer was produced by a vendor I have caught in the past breaking the law – (See PDC Enforcement Case #100473 attached)

In addition, this PAC, during the 2022 election season, reported three different $1,000 contributions to Spokane area candidates for office (See PDC C4 # 110120390 attached). Specifically, these were $1,000 to failed Spokane County Commissioner candidate Maggie Yates (See PDC C3 # 110119100 attached) – please note you can see in this C3 that Lisa Brown’s husband Brian McClatchey is the Treasurer for the Maggie Yates at this time and his name is clearly indicated on this report. Another $1,000 went to the successful Chris Jordan campaign. He was running for Spokane County Commissioner (See PDC C3 # 110115548 attached). The Final $1,000 went to the successful Amer Waldref campaign. She was also running for the Spokane County Commission (See PDC C3 # 110115614 attached).

The reason why it matters that this secretive dark money PAC sponsored by the Lisa Brown for Congress campaign funds kept their true legally required sponsorship name secret from the public is because in all three of these political campaigns to which the illegally named “509 Forward PAC” gave $1,000 contributions, the Lisa Brown for Congress Federal PAC had already maxed out the legally allowed $2,000 in contributions. Therefore, by illegally concealing the proper name from the public, this PAC was able to illegally conceal from everyone at the time of the election that the Lisa Brown for Congress campaign was actually laundering illegal overlimit contributions to all three of these campaigns using the “509 Forward PAC” as a fake front for the contributions. It would have obviously raised red flags for election observers, the public, and the media (assuming there is any media left in Spokane) that the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC was obviously exceeding campaign finance limits in all three of these political races with a quick search of their C3s using the search tools, however, by concealing fact that the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC was the primary sponsor (96.48%) of the “509 Forward PAC” this useful information was concealed from the public, as was intended.

I realize that PDC staff is perfectly capable of verifying the statements I made above, but in order to help staff for verification purposes - staff can verify the contributions made by the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC to all three candidates to the maximum limit, IN ADDITION to these dark money contributions by 509 Forward PAC (also, just for ease of reference, I will also detail the contributions made by Lisa Brown directly, which also were maxed out to the Maggie Yates campaign) I have included the PDC Tracking numbers for each transaction:

1. Maggie Yates

4/09/2022 – Lisa Brown - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110079842)

4/21/2022 – Lisa Brown for Congress - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110082043)
4/21/2022 – Lisa Brown for Congress - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110082043)
8/07/2022 – Lisa Brown - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110105389)

2. Chris Jordan

4/08/2022 – Lisa Brown - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110082035)
4/09/2022 – Lisa Brown for Congress - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110086133)
4/09/2022 – Lisa Brown for Congress - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110086133)

3. Amber Waldref

12/14/2021 – Lisa Brown for Congress - $1,000 (PDC Report # 110066686)
4/10/2022 – Lisa Brown - $500 (PDC Report # 110081558)
4/15/2022 – Lisa Brown for Congress - $1,000 (PDC Report# 110081799)

So, upon reviewing each of the targeted three campaigns the “509 Forward PAC” gave cash contributions, we can see why they decided to conceal the identity of the sponsor of their PAC. If instead, they had legally named their PAC (Violation of RCW 42.17A.005(47)(b)(i), WAC 390-16-011A) then it would have been obvious that the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC was attempting to circumvent the campaign finance limits imposed by Washington State’s campaign finance laws for these political campaigns.

Additionally, I will point out that in the failed Maggie Yates campaign, if they had complied with the law, the truth would stand out even more considering that the treasurer was Lisa Brown’s husband, and I had also previously caught his campaign violating some campaign finance laws as well (See PDC Enforcement Case #113087 from a few months ago attached), and the PDC has already reminded them to try to comply in the future. It looks like that reminder fell on deaf ears, or they just laughed it off.

All of this should be adequate explanation for why this PAC’s willful decision to conceal the sponsorship information from its own C1 and also from the candidates C3s to whom they were contributing cash matters. It would have mattered for the public to be aware, during the campaign, and because of deceptive choices by this PAC to conceal the truth, the public was not aware. This is a clear, unambiguous, egregious willful violation by this PAC and the officers who run it.

Unfortunately, it appears that this PAC’s decision in 2022 to just go rogue and not even bother following the law carried into most of their formal political activity for 2022. Specifically, and most obviously, the mailer I referenced above, on November 2, 2022 of 12,500pcs for $4,375. This was sent within 7 days of the 2022 election. (See PDC C4 # 110129042 attached). Clearly, this mailer did not properly provide accurate information on the name of the sponsor.

Another odd detail for this dark money Pac is the fact that the last Mega contribution from the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC, which landed in the bank of this 509 Forward PAC Sponsored by the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC are two odd expenditures. Both of these expenditures may have been expenditures made to influence or help a recently announced 2023 Lisa

Brown for Spokane Mayor race. If this is true, then we have multiple in-kind contributions which have been improperly concealed for months and disguised behind this secretive dark money PAC.

Specifically, I am referring to the December mailer (A PAC mailing out AFTER the election is over by a month? (See PDC C4# 110132424 attached). No C6 was filed for this mailer, and if it had nothing to do with a candidate running for office, was it a promotion piece for Lisa Brown and her upcoming Mayoral race? Secondly, a primary expense for this PAC was a $25,000 “Research Consulting” expense with a DC Consulting Company called “Searchlight Research” (See PDC C4 # 110112132). The expenditure seems substantially out of line compared to the anemic activity of this Pac, but it would make sense if this was some polling and data collection research organized for the Lisa Brown for Mayor campaign (it should be disclosed, however, and not concealed from the public).

Flagrant and significant violations of the Washington State Campaign finance laws like this should result in some penalty or this case will just further encourage more flagrant lawbreaking to mock the campaign finance laws further. It might be nice to discourage further lawbreaking in order to ensure that violations like this do not become habitual or repeated in the future.

Since I just stumbled on this one, it seems likely I will find more details to provide staff soon. This should be enough to get the investigation started.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

This secretive dark money PAC decided to illegally conceal the fact it was almost entirely sponsored by the Lisa Brown for Congress PAC (96.48%) in 2022. This concealment allowed them to conceal the fact they were making illegal overlimit contributions to three different political candidates for the Spokane County Commission in 2022.

See various C3 and C4 documents attached for reference - also in most cases the PDC tracking number is referenced for easy sourcing and verification by staff within the body of the complaint

List of potential witnesses with contact information to reach them

Lisa Brown for sure. All the board members of this secretive PAC as well as the treasurer, who should know better than to conceal the sponsor name from the C1PC document. The vendor associated with the mailer as referenced in the complaint, and also the vendor work product for the secretive DC consulting project and the post-election mailer

Subject: PDC Case 100473

Dear Northwest Passage Consulting, LLC / Christian Sinderman:

Enclosed is a copy of an electronic letter sent to Glen Morgan concerning a complaint filed with the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

As noted in the letter to Glen Morgan, the PDC has dismissed this matter in accordance with RCW 42.17A.755(1) and will not be conducting a more formal investigation into these allegations or taking further enforcement action in this matter.

However, pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(d), this letter serves as a warning letter concerning the failure of Northwest Passage Consulting (NWP) to properly report activities totaling $7,000 supporting six charter amendments on the November 2, 2021 general election ballot in San Juan County. NWP was not required to file a C-6 report of Independent Expenditure Ads costing $1,000 or more, appearing within 21 days of an election, because the advertising was sponsored by nine contributors who were responsible for filing the C-6 report, and who were also responsible for registering and reporting as a political committee, and for being listed as the sponsor on the advertising. The formal written warning will include staff's expectation that all future required reports of contributions and expenditures be properly and timely reported and that the correct sponsor be identified on political advertising. The Commission will consider the formal written warning in deciding on further Commission action if there are future violations of PDC laws or rules.

If you have questions, you may contact Phil Stutzman at 360-664-8853 toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail pdcc@pdcc.wa.gov.

Complaint Description
Glen Morgan (Wed, 27 Oct 2021 at 2:51 PM) To whom it may concern, It has come to my attention that Northwest Passage Consulting, LLC and it's owner, Christian Sinderman have chosen to violate Washington State's campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A). The specific violations are as follows: 1) Failure to properly register as a political committee (Violation of RCW 42.17A.205) Attached is a copy of a mailer recently sent to voters in San Juan County. The Mailer is clearly an Independent Expenditure in favor of a variety of local charter amendments proposed by the San Juan Charter Commission controlled and directed by disgraced former 40th Leg. District State Senator Kevin Ranker (who was forced to resign from the Washington State Legislature in January of 2019, due to a #Metoo sexual harassment scandal which became public knowledge in 2018 – see article attached). Northwest Passage Consulting, LLC (owned by Christian Sinderman, it's only listed officer) is identified as the primary sponsor of this mailer and independent expenditure. However, in addition to this secretive Seattle-based corporation, the mailer also identified the top5 donors, including the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Janet Alderton 2. Maureen See, San Juan County Charter Commissioner 3. Jane Fuller, San Juan County Charter Commissioner 4. Kyle Davies, San Juan County Charter Commissioner 5. Janet Brownell, San Juan County Charter Commissioner The proper way to have launched this Seattle-based corporate sponsored political mailer in the last few weeks of an election campaign would be for this collection of people to create a Political Action Committee as required under RCW 42.17A.205. However, for some weird and strange reason, they failed to do so. Weirdly enough, the mailer says "Paid for by" and then lists Northwest Passage Consulting, yet it clearly identifies the top five contributors as listed above, failing to list either Christian Sinderman or Northwest Passage Consulting, LLC as one of the top 5 contributors to this shady Seattle-based corporate mailer. Please note, if this corporation decided to violate RCW 42.17A.205, then they also violated RCW 42.17A.210 and RCW 42.17A.215. Which then leads to the next clear violation of the state's campaign finance laws. 2) Failure to properly disclose contributions of top 5 (or more) donors on the independent expenditure C-6 report (Violation of RCW 42.17A.260, RCW 42.17A.265, RCW 42.17A.305(1)(b)(ii), WAC 39-16-063(4), WAC 390-16-060) This Seattle based corporation did file an independent expenditure report (See PDC Tracking #11005, a C-6 report dated October 20, 2021 – see attached). However, when you look at page 2, Section 5, all the information for the true donors to this political campaign is left blank. It has been concealed from the public.

This is a notable violation since not only was this violation committed within a few weeks of the November election date, and while the mailer itself identifies at least 5 top donors, the C-6 conceals how much these top 5 donors contributed to the mailer, and it conceals other secret donors who might remain concealed from the public because they either contributed less than these listed top 5, or the same amount, but were concealed from the top5 list. For example, it would be reasonable for the sponsors of this corporately funded Seattle mailer to desire to conceal the identity of disgraced former State Senator Kevin Ranker due to his unsavory history of sexual harassment and resignation from the state senate in 2019. Even if Kevin Ranker had contributed the same amount as the other top 5 listed contributors, this secretive Seattle corporation run by Christian Sinderman could legally keep Ranker's name off the mailer, but on this C-6 report, he would be required to reveal the otherwise concealed identity (See RCW 42.17A.305 (1)(b)(ii)).

Keep in mind, if this Corporation had established a PAC as required by RCW 42.17A.205 and they were properly filing their C-3 contribution and C-4 expenditure reports timely and correctly with the PDC (as required by RCW 42.17A.240 and .235), then they could be exempt from providing the donor information on the C-6 report because it would already be included on the C-3 reports. However, they chose not to do this, presuming they could keep everything as secretive as possible.

What is particularly troubling about these violations in this specific case is the fact that Christian Sinderman clearly knows better than this. He is one of the most highly compensated political consultants and the secretive corporation he manages in Seattle has been involved in hundreds, if not thousands of political campaigns in Washington State. He knows the law, and his staff know the law, and they chose to break the law regardless.

It should also be noted that compliance with the law would have been very easy and would only require that they report the truth about how much each donor contributed (the whole point of Washington State's campaign finance laws in the first place) and they had two options to do this. Either set up a PAC like everyone else who gets involved in the political process and just report the donor data on the C-3 report, or they could have stuck with the weird secretive corporate sponsorship program and provided the information correctly on the C-6. The form is right there, impossible to miss.

However, they chose to willfully break the law anyway with the presumption that nobody would notice.

The PDC staff should take this violation seriously, otherwise, a failure to enforce the law in this instance will provide a roadmap for further lawbreaking in the future.

This is not a hard violation to figure out and a financial penalty should be levied in this case. These are all experienced elected officials and a very experienced secretive Seattle-based corporation.

Even the political insiders should have to follow the same laws imposed on everyone else.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

The public has a right to know who is funding last minute secretive independent political expenditures, and how much they are contributing to this effort. It is particularly egregious to conceal this information behind a wealthy Seattle-based corporation facade. These are all elected officials and very experienced political consultants. These violations are willful and done in a manner to conceal the truth from the public.

Democrat Senator Kevin Ranker resigns in disgrace, multiple investigations continue

By Glen Morgan - January 14, 2019

Democrat Senator Kevin Ranker resigned from the Washington State senate over the weekend

Democrat State Senator Ranker (40th LD) is bolting from the Washington State Senate under a cloud of investigations into sexual harassment and other problems like tax fraud and campaign finance violations

Over the weekend, Washington State Senator Kevin Ranker (Democrat, 40th Legislative District) officially resigned his seat (See story background linked here and here). Ranker's email resignation statement sent Saturday is linked here. The primary motivation for his resignation was the inevitable fallout from the sexual harassment investigation being conducted by the Washington State Senate into accusations filed by his former legislative aide and former legislative liaison for the Washington State Fish and Wildlife Department. Her accusations included claims that Senator Ranker threatened to cut the budget for the agency unless she renewed sexual relations with him. Senator Ranker is married and was married at the time of the original affair.

Senator Ranker is counting on his close relationship to San Juan County Prosecutor Randy Gaylord (Left) to keep him out of any real trouble.

Theoretically, the investigation into his behavior continues under the new process developed and championed by Senator Ranker himself in the last legislative session. However, most observers expect this investigation to ratchet down and become a footnote with Senator Ranker's resignation. In addition, this author helped initiate a few additional investigations of Senator Ranker's behavior in other areas. The first was with the Washington State Department of Revenue for falsifying at least one Real Estate Excise Tax form submitted to the DOR for the purpose of committing tax fraud (see article here). The second was with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission for concealing his property assets on his Financial Disclosure Reports (see complaint linked here and earlier complaint filed against him in 2017 by this author linked here).

Former Democrat State Representative Brendan Williams (22nd LD) (pictured on the right) was recently publicly exposed for harassing women while a State Legislator.

Lost in the sexual harassment investigation into Ranker's past actions is the apparently cavalier attitude it reveals about how agency budgets are negotiated in Olympia. This still seems like a much bigger story than just another story about a corrupt politician in Olympia. When stories first broke about former Democrat legislator Brendan Williams in late 2017 (Olympia – 22nd Legislative District), they generally involved Representative Williams prolifically harassing a variety of female lobbyists working at the State Capital. The concerns raised in all these cases involve the fear expressed by the women that their careers, their jobs, and the interests they represented were placed in jeopardy depending on how they responded to Brendan William's harassment. Similarly the investigation into Ranker's harassment involve the open threat of budget cuts or job termination based on sexual (or lack thereof) favors.

Senator Kevin Ranker may get away with most of his violations and only receive a slap on the wrist. He has reliably pushed the most extreme Leftist agenda in his role as a Democratic Party politician, as a San Juan County Commissioner, as the former Executive Director of the Friends of the San Juans, and as an Evergreen College student. He is not a Republican or a conservative, so he gets kid glove treatment and the general whitewash that is traditionally accorded the political insiders from the ruling party in Olympia (remember, according to the Ann Larson complaint, she originally brought these issues up back in 2011, but they were ignored and vanished – it only was made public when she recently sent them to the Governor's office).

Who gets appointed to Ranker's vacant seat?

Some Serious Democratic Party infighting usually occurs during the appointment process

Senator Ranker's resignation is sure to initiate a feeding frenzy within the Democratic Party as they fight over the nomination process, first at the PCO level, and then when the elected councilmembers from San Juan County and Whatcom County and the commissioners from Skagit County convene to make the final appointment. Backroom negotiating has been occurring quietly for months now, but with the official announcement of Ranker's resignation, the real fight begins. Traditionally, when a Senator resigns or leaves office early, the appointment is most likely going to be a sitting legislator in that district of the same party.

For example, this has happened recently in the 31st Legislative District when Republican Senator Pam Roach was elected to the Pierce County Council in 2016 and recently elected Representative Phil Fortunato was appointed to fill her seat. Another example includes the 28th Legislative District when Republican Senator Mike Carrell died in 2013 and Representative Steve O'Ban was appointed to fill this seat and. Another example is the 2017 appointment of Republican Senator Brian Dansel in the 7th Legislative District whose seat was filled by the appointment of Representative Shelly Short. There are many other examples. If this tradition continues in the Ranker resignation situation, then this nomination and vote process will occur twice – first with the vacated Senate seat, and secondly with the newly vacated Legislative seat.

Jeff Morris, attempting to explain how large his violations of the state's campaign finances were Democrat state Representative Jeff Morris is the senior legislator in the 40th district. This author filed a PDC complaint against Representative Morris \(linked here\), which resulted in a lawsuit filed by the AG against him (linked here), which resulted in a paddy-cake settlement (linked here). To read more about this case go here. Representative Morris is also currently under investigation for harassment, although this investigation appears to be less significant or sensational than the Ranker sexual harassment investigation. There has been some speculation that this investigation is really part of a Democratic Party intramural squabble and was triggered recently in an effort to reduce the chance that Morris could be appointed to the vacant seat. All these factors reduce the likelihood that Representative Morris would be appointed to Ranker's vacant seat.

Representative Debra Lekanoff (40th LD)

The most likely candidate to be appointed is the recently elected legislator from that district – Democrat Representative Debra Lekanoff. She was elected with 67% of the vote, and the recent successful election ensures her name familiarity with local voters. She is just as extreme as Senator Ranker on all the issues that matter (maximum taxes, supports growing the abusive administrative state, a strong supporter of Gang Green, etc). Assuming Lekanoff is appointed to Ranker's seat, then this means her legislative seat will also then be vacant and require another round of the appointment process.

Investigations, Political Insiders, and the cycle continues

Senator Ranker stands in front of fake Orca whale at "Salish Sea Stands in Capitol Hill Day" event at the Washington State Capitol in Olympia, Feb. 13, 2017.

Meanwhile, the investigations into Senator Ranker's various behavioral problems continues. Part of stepping down likely involved a negotiated end to the #Metoo investigation. His resignation is probably adequate for political insiders. The investigators are unlikely to explore any further the sex in exchange for agency state budget votes – THAT is a rock they won't want to turn over. The PDC will slap his wrist for his failure to properly comply with the law. The Department of Revenue is also likely to give him easy treatment for his attempt to evade taxes and his falsification of documents he provided to them in 2013.

If you have tracked scandals like this in the past, then you know full well that not everyone is equal under the law in Washington State. The political minority and disfavored will be persecuted. The politically correct will get kid glove treatment – if they are caught. However, it is still important to expose the truth and to pay attention. These are the same people who believe they are smarter than you, who demand that you be forced to pay more taxes, get offended when you don't trust them, and who believe they can dictate to you how to live your life because THEY clearly know better.

Complaint Description
Glen Morgan (Thu, 6 Oct 2022 at 3:27 PM) To whom it may concern, It has come to my attention that Spokane County Commissioner candidate Maggie Yates appears to have violated Washington State's campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A), during the current 2022 campaign. I will detail these violations below: 1) Willful failure to disclose employer information of large donor (Violation of RCW 42.17A.240, WAC 390-16-034) On at least four occasions, the Yates campaign has willfully chosen to falsify employer information by a large max donor to their campaign. I will explain how it is known that this was a willful and purposeful violation of RCW 42.17A.240 and more specifically WAC 390-16-034. I've attached screen shots of the three C3 reports (See PDC Report # 110104153, #110105376, and # 110105389) and the one C4 report (See PDC Report # 110105684) where max donor Brian McClatchey was reported with $1500 of cash contributions and one $500 of "in-kind" contributions and with "not employed" in the description for employer which is required to be filled accurately under RCW 42.17A.240 and WAC 390-16-034. WAC 390-16-034 reads as follows: Pursuant to RCW 42.17A.240, each report required under RCW 42.17A.235 shall disclose, in addition to the name and address of each person who has made one or more contributions in the aggregate amount of more than one hundred dollars, their occupation, and the name and address of their employer. Brian McClatchey was not correctly identified on the four reports as "not employed." While the excuse commonly presented by treasurers when they fail to accurately fill in this part of a C3 or C4 report is the fact that the donor gave incorrect information or false information, that excuse does not apply in this case because this donor is the very treasurer completing these reports and is personally knowledgeable that he is employed during the time that he made these contributions and falsely completed these reports. In addition, it should be noted that Brian McClatchey is a licensed attorney and therefore an officer of the court (See screen grab of Washington State Bar Association search result). McClatchey's State Bar License Number is #37416. He has been an attorney since 2006 and his license appears to be in good standing since at least 2006. He does not appear to have been disbarred yet at this time, although I will point out it is not considered to be ethical, even for licensed attorneys, to knowingly falsify PDC documents as Brian McClatchey appears to have done – however, this is probably an issue best resolved by the Bar Association itself. Again, it appears that at no time during these various contributions was Brian McClatchey "not employed" which he knows well, since he was the treasurer filling in these reports. According to the WSBA, he is and has been employed by: Maier Pfeffer Kim Geary & Cohen, LLP 90 S E St Ste 320 Santa Rosa, CA 95404-6500 In the early part of the campaign, it appears he was also employed as a legal policy director of some type with the City of Spokane, a position he recently resigned from since it appears his wife, Lisa Brown, who is currently the Director of Washington State's Dept. of Commerce plans to be running for the Spokane City

Mayor position next year (2023) and is expected to declare her campaign intentions in days or weeks from the date of this complaint.

I will point out, for the record, that McClatchey is a clear political insider as a former member of the Spokane County Redistricting Commission and as a legal consultant for the City of Spokane he is more than qualified to understand the law which he has chosen to willfully violate in this instance.

As further evidence of this willful attempt to conceal his employment information, I have attached numerous other contemporaneous contributions he made to a variety of local Spokane area politicians including Andrew Bivianno (former Chair of the Spokane County Democrats and candidate for judge), Marcus Riccelli, and others where THOSE treasurers identified him as policy director for the City of Spokane or attorney.

2) Attempt to conceal illegal overlimit in-kind contributions to political campaign (Violation of RCW 42.17A.405, WAC 390-16-207, WAC 390-05-235(4))

Furthermore, it appears that the Yates campaign appears to have concealed illegal overlimit in-kind contributions from the reporting on this campaign. This is particularly problematic in this case because the failures to report involve the very treasurer who should be filing these reports in the first place, so ignorance is not an excuse in this case. In C4 PDC Report # 110105684, filed August 8, 2022 (amending earlier report from June), it is clearly reported that on May 15, 2022, Brian McClatchey reported his treasurer services for April – May as a fair market value of $500.

I will not attempt to argue over the fair market value or lack of value, attorney Brian McClatchey's treasurer services represent to the Yates campaign. However, I will point out that McClatchey continues to be the treasurer many months after the original in-kind contribution was reported in May, yet has failed to continue to report these in-kind contributions to the campaign. This is an effort to conceal some illegal in-kind contributions which this treasurer has been providing for 5 months now.

There are two steps this campaign can take at this point to rectify this willful failure to accurately report this information to the public or the Public Disclosure Commission.

First, the campaign can report these previously concealed illegal overlimit in-kind contributions to the campaign and admit and acknowledge their violations. This would involve refiling amended C4 reports from the beginning of the campaign.

Secondly, since the concealed, illegal in-kind contributions exceed the limits imposed on this campaign by RCW 42.17A.405, this campaign must reimburse to Brian McClatchey the excess in-kind contributions to bring the campaign back into compliance with Washington State campaign finance law. This appears to be $500 per month since May 2022, and since McClatchey has also made cash contributions to this campaign in the amount of $1500 to date, these reimbursements probably exceed the amount of cash contributions from McClatchey and will need to be accurately reported moving forward.

It might be worthwhile for the Yates campaign to reconsider using McClatchey as their treasurer, paid or volunteer, however, I make no formal recommendation on this matter because while that decision might be more likely to bring this campaign closer to compliance with state law, removing McClatchey from this position would probably make it more difficult for me to expose wrongdoing by the people, like him, who regularly fail to follow these laws on a regular basis.

If you need further information on this case, I'm happy to provide it, but I believe I have provided adequate information for PDC staff to complete their investigation in this case.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

The public has a right to know when the former policy director of the city is falsifying information on a politician's campaign finance documents. The public has a right to know if an attorney/policy director for the City of Spokane is concealing the truth from the public. The public has a right to know why someone like this is screwing up campaign finance documents.
