On June 22, 2023, in accordance with RCW 42.17A.110 and RCW 42.17A.755, the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) held an enforcement hearing concerning the allegation that Zack Zappone violated RCW 42.17A.235 and .240 by failing to file the required individual contributor information for surplus funds transferred as a lump sum from his 2020 campaign for State Representative to his 2021 campaign for Spokane City Council. Specifically, PDC Staff alleges that Mr. Zappone failed to file C-3 reports for his 2021 Spokane City Council campaign, disclosing the required information about each contributor giving more than $25 in the aggregate during the campaign, including: (1) the contributor's name and address; (2) the amount of the contribution; (3) the aggregate of contributions made during the election campaign; and (4) for individual contributors whose aggregate contributions exceed $100, the occupation of the contributor and the name and location (city and state) of their employer.

The Commission has scheduled a continuation of the hearing to decide if the violations occurred, and, if necessary, assess a penalty. The Commission may also decide if it will accept a Stipulation (informal settlement) by the parties as to facts, violations and/or penalties, if the parties propose such a Stipulation. See WAC 390-37-090. The Commission also has the authority to assess a civil penalty in accordance with WAC 390-37-182, the Enforcement Hearing penalty schedule adopted by the Commission.

The Public Disclosure Commission recommends that respondents personally appear whenever possible. PDC staff or its legal counsel will present this matter to the Commission.
