What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Campaign finance illegal contributions from an unregistered PAC and not timely reporting donations. First, the PAC calling itself "Ladies of Liberty-TriCities" was formed two years ago and has held public fundraising events on at least two occasions. The first occasion, April 18, 2023 solicited vendors and prize donations for the event. The event host and founder, Hayley Hoyt, along with her business "High-heeled Housewife" organized this public event. The second event was a fund raiser for Governor candidate Semi Bird. Hoyt stated the event raised $3,000 for Bird. This event was on May 10, 2023. Neither the PAC nor Semi Bird has declared these contributions. Semi Bird has failed to timely file and disclose contributions and expenditures "Ladies of Liberty-TriCities" have violated RCW 42.17A.005(40) The contribution prong is met when an individual or entity begins to solicit or otherwise expects to receive contributions to support or oppose an election campaign, regardless of any spending activity. The application of the expenditure prong is not as straightforward and has raised questions, particularly for corporations, associations, or similar organizations that do not solicit political campaign contributions and are not necessarily created specifically to finance campaign activities, but nevertheless spend money in election campaigns.
