I again thank you, Tabatha, and respect the time and effort you consumed to compile the email below.

As I believe is the case for most candidates who conflict with the political opinions of the individual filing the complaint, Glen Morgan, my love for my hometown intensifies the regret I have for any inconsistencies my campaign financial reports may currently have.

It is obvious that my social media posts which are not complementary to a candidate, Jessica Yeager running for Position 2 in the City of Spokane Valley, who supports Mr. Morgan's political bias and extremism, are on the mark and MUST CONTINUE. Why else would an individual from the west side of the state now evaluate my campaign from two years ago.

This process has invigorated me and will help me spend time I do not have in hopes Ms. Yeager is not capable of regressing the City of Spokane Valley further!
My team's focus will be to remedy any inconsistencies to the satisfaction of the PDC out of respect to the voters of the City of Spokane Valley and our society as a whole.

Expect a reply by August 28th as your original email requested.

Take Care, Stay Healthy,
James "JJ" Johnson

Good afternoon, Tabatha, and happy Friday!

We have reviewed our records, made difficult because of the time since closing of the election, and have discovered that there was, inadvertently, two payments received from the Spokane Regional Labor Council. One check was for $500 and one was for $1000.

We were hoping our accounting was in error, but the error appears to be our lack of discovery for being over the $1000 donation limit.

I have copied Steve Yucho who acted as my treasurer for the campaign. As mentioned in my opening response back to you, we are very interested in making this oversight right.

Please reply to all and provide next steps in that regard and keep in mind that the account for the campaign was closed.

Thank you,
James "JJ" Johnson
