What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Ms Reed has not filed either contributions or expenditures since 7//12/23. The election is next week. She is aware of her contributions and expenditures, since she report the same on her social media. Voters want to see from where contributions come. The contributions are a window to political leanings and possible future obligations and influence. Transparency and integrity are what is important in reporting. Details and timeliness matter.

What to expect

Join local community organization Justice 4 Yvonne McDonald and the Committee to Elect Talauna Reed as they partner to celebrate back to school. We will host this event two separate dates at 3 different locations in September. We will be giving kites away to kids (k-12). The kites will be blank, and we will provide markers so that the kids can express themselves and create their version of a fabulous kite. We will have popcorn for anyone joins us that day. In addition to the kites, we will have goody bags for the kiddos (socks, toothbrushes, toothpaste, hand soap, face mask, pencils, legos, school glue, and more).

We will have tablets so that folks can register to vote!

The Olympia Labor Council endorsement committee was made up of members from the Olympia Education Association, Olympia Paraeducators Association and Olympia Educational Administrative Professionals Association.

Candidates were given the Washington Education Association endorsement survey and interview questions. Based on their responses the Council decided to endorse Maria Flores and Talauna Reed for OSD School Board Position 1, Jess Tourtellotte-Palumbo for OSD School Board Position 2 and Hilary Seidel for OSD School Board Position 4.

Endorsed candidates will receive a Washington Education Association- Political Action Committee (WEA-PAC) donation, access to WEA-PAC logos and the opportunity to put a sign in front of the Olympia Education Association office.

THURSTON COUNTY DEMOCRATS

www.waynefournier.com

Wayne Fournier

County Commissioner Dist. No.4

As a lifelong resident of Thurston County with family roots going back to the 19th century, I feel a deep sense of duty to serve the community I've always called home. If elected as your Thurston County Commissioner, I will bring leadership and fervent passion for public service to this important office.

Emily Clouse,

County Commissioner Dist. No.5,

Emily has a proven track record of bringing people together to find solutions to tough problems. She is running for Thurston County Commissioner District 5 to empower each voter to participate more fully in their community, and she is committed to making Thurston County a better place for everyone.

Jasmine Vasavada

Port Commissioner Dist. No.1

I know that together, we can collaborate with regional partners and experts to ensure the Port of Olympia remains a vibrant, healthy, and diverse place to live and do business. I've devoted my life and career to ensuring our communities thrive and I will continue to work with this same determination and dedication as a Port Commissioner!

Maggie Sanders

Port Commissioner Dist. No. 4

As your Port Commissioner, my priorities will be environmental stewardship, fiscal responsibility, transparency in government, and democratic accountability. I will work for the creation of family wage jobs, help our farms to thrive, develop tourism, support innovative small businesses, forest restoration, and the creation of green energy jobs such as solar and wind energy.
