I apologize for the late submission of the C4 report. I incorrectly assumed that reporting was not longer needed as I'm not in the general election post primary. I did submit as soon as I realized the mistake and as you can see I received zero contributions throughout the entire primary campaign. This complaint seems to be an attempt from the complainant to "prove a point". If anything else is required at this time to be in compliance, please don't hesitate to let me know.
