Complaint Against: WA ST COUNCIL OF CO & CITY EMPLOYEES

Submitted: 11/13/24

Notice to Respondent by: 11/23/24 per WAC 390-37-050(1)

90 Day Initial Hearing Deadline: 2/11/25 per RCW 42.17A.755(3)

Statutes Violated: RCW 42.17A.235, .240

Background

Washington State's Campaign Finance Disclosure Law

One of the primary purposes of the public disclosure law is to provide citizens of this state, and especially voters, with the means for becoming informed about the financing of political campaigns.¹ The public disclosure law was enacted through voter approval of Initiative 276 in 1972.

State law requires candidates and committees that register under full reporting to submit regular reports of financial activity. Those reports are filed on schedules outlined on the PDC's key reporting dates calendar.²

When a political committee makes an expenditure benefitting a candidate appearing on the general election ballot or donates to a committee whose spending benefits a candidate appearing on the general election ballot, the committee becomes obligated to file reports on the same schedule that those candidates must follow.³

Violations

By virtue of the fact that this committee made expenditures supporting general election committees/candidates, the committee became obligated to file the 21- and 7-day pre-general C4 reports. The committee failed to do so, and instead filed the report covering this period on 11/13/24 after the election was already over.

See link: <https://apollo.pdc.wa.gov/public/registrations/campaign-finance-report/110260145>

The report contained $4,400.00 worth of general election-related expenditures.

Additionally, this C3 (for a $2000 contribution) should have been disclosed on the Monday following deposit (before the election) but wasn't disclosed until well after the election was already over:

<https://apollo.pdc.wa.gov/public/registrations/campaign-finance-report/110254275>

Let me be clear: I don't believe that this filer intentionally failed to file the required report by the appropriate deadline. However, regardless of their intent, the failure to file reports by the appropriate deadline is a violation.

PDC staff have long known that there is an issue with committees in our state filing reports on the appropriate schedule. Rather than admit the existence of this problem and work with stakeholders to come up with a solution that would solve this problem, the PDC staff have chosen to bury the problem under the rug with a mountain of “reminder” and “warning” letter dismissals.

² <https://pdc.wa.gov/registration-reporting/candidates-committees/registration-reporting-basics/key-dates-2024>

³ See RCW 42.17A.235(2) and RCW 42.17A.005(38)

This must change.

Conclusion

The PDC has an obligation to provide transparency to the voters by enforcing disclosure requirements. The agency’s failure to actively monitor compliance with these requirements and enforce them damages both the public and members of the regulated community.

I urge the PDC staff to take quick action and resolve the noncompliance identified in this complaint.

Best,

Notice to Respondent

I apologize to you for any inconvenience caused by this complaint. The chance that you will actually be fined for the violations identified above is extremely small because the agency is averse to doing the work necessary to bring cases to hearings. Most likely this case – and any future cases against you – will simply be dismissed by staff with a so-called “warning letter”.

This complaint is one of hundreds that I have filed to highlight and ultimately fix the significant shortcomings associated with the agency responsible for administering our state’s campaign finance laws.

What are these shortcomings?

Overcomplicated and outdated requirements that are difficult to understand and comply with. Failure to properly educate the regulated community about the tasks they must perform to remain in compliance with applicable requirements and avoid complaints. Failure of the agency to send regular reminders to filers about pending deadlines. A failure to proactively enforce applicable requirements which enables the complaint system to become weaponized. Non-intuitive, non-user friendly, and buggy reporting software. Failure to meaningfully enforce core requirements. Failure to follow the best operating practices of other neighboring campaign finance agencies. An agency leadership structure that largely disregards stakeholder input and is slow to identify and resolve major agency deficiencies.

I believe that the best way to motivate the agency to address these problems is by filing a large number of complaints so that the agency’s problems become impossible to ignore.

Slowly (too slowly) this strategy is starting to yield concrete and beneficial changes. You can read about these changes here: <https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/politics/why-one-man-filed-800-campaign-finance-complaints-against-wa-candidates/>

If you believe that the agency could have done something different to help you proactively avoid the issues identified in this complaint, I hope that you will consider including it in your response. The agency, and the public, can benefit from your perspective and feedback.
